OBITUARY

John G. Gaugh died at this place, Thursday morning, in the 78th year of his age. In 1890, Thanksgiving day, he was stricken with paralysis, recovering after weeks of illness to extent of being able to get about quite comfortably till within the past year. Saturday previous to his death he suffered a second and fatal stroke. Deceased was born in Fayette County, this State, Sept. 24, 1820; his parents moved to North Shenango Township, Crawford County, while he had not yet attained his majority. He married Miss Louiza Trace of Shenango; three children blessed the union, a daughter died in infancy and the only son at age of 30 in 1882; Mrs. OH Cram, of this place, is only surviving heir. In 1870 he moved to Linesville and went into the mercantile trade, retiring in 1884. A brother at St. Joseph, Mo., and sister, Mrs. Jane Collins of North Shenango, are living. Deceased was member of Universalist Church, his pastor, Rev. Washburn, officiating at funeral. Linesville IOOF lodge took charge of burial services; interment in Linesville Cemetery. He was a member of the order over 45 years, holding seniority among Linesville Odd Fellows. He carried life insurance of $1000 in Western Pa. Odd Fellows Relief Association of Titusville.
