Events

- Her obituary was published. From the Garwood Scrapbook at the Linesville Historical Society:
 Bertha May Rice was born in Linesville, Pa., May 7, 1872, and died in Linesville, Pa., Nov. 1, 1902. She was married July 2, 1898, to Wm. J. Harvey. Of this union there was born one son, now a little over two years of age. Mrs. Harvey was a good woman, who had the respect and esteem of a large circle of friends. She was a faithful wife and a devoted mother. The deepest concern which she felt in her approaching departure was for her little boy who is too young to realize his great loss. She was a member of the ME Church, and a consistent Christian lady. Her influence was on the side of right. During the closing days of her life she knew that she must yield to the last enemy; but she did so with calm resignation and a firm reliance upon God. She left assuring words that it was all right with her. The funeral was held in the ME church, conducted by her pastor, Rev. SG Gillett. There was a large gathering of sorrowing friends. She leaves a mother, Mrs. Sarah Rice, of this place, two sisters and two brothers, besides her husband and little boy, to mourn her loss. Interment took place in Linesville cemetery. The sympathy of the community is extended unto the sorrowing family.
