Hemorrhages within the past week hastened death. Although a sufferer and unable to speak her last hour was indicative to friends as moments of happiness to her who has been called home from a life of Christian work. She was a member of the Baptist church and when health permitted an earnest and faithful worker.

Deceased's maiden name was Lewis. She was born at Espyville. In 1859 the couple were married and resided in West Williamsfield, Ohio, and in Eastern Crawford until 12 years ago, when they took up their abode at this place.
