Events

- His obituary was published August 30, 1898 in Linesville Borough, Crawford County, PA. From the Linesville Herald, page 3, column 2:

"THE OLDEST RESIDENT - D.C. THAYER DIES AT AGE OF 90 YEARS:
 Saturday, August 27th, Daniel C. Thayer, ten days past the 90th year of his age, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George P. White, this place.

He took severe cold a week ago which caused inflammation of the lungs which failed to afford him the breathing capacity of former years, owing to fatty growth. During his life he was sick once with fever and ague and experienced an accident culminating in a broken leg.

Deceased was born in Concord, Vermont, in 1808. His parents moved to Trumbull county, Ohio, in 1814 where he remained until 1854 when he bought the farm of 300 acres or more in Pine township on which he resided until he retired from arduous labor. While residing in Bloomfield township, O, he raised the first barn put up in that country without the use of liquor as a treat. He was an organizer of the Wm. Lloyd Garrison abolition party which refrained from voting on the ground that in voting, by common consent one agreed to acquiesce in the will of the majority, thus believing that they would stultify themselves in exercising franchise, in case pro-slavery voters won an election. After Lincoln's proclamation freeing the slaves was issued, Mr. Thayer voted for Lincoln. Afterwards he became a Greenbacker, and in recent years an adherent of the People's party. He is survived by his wife who is 84 years of age and enjoying good health, and ten of thirteen children - Garrison C., of Chautauqua, NY; Charles F., of Atlantic; Parker M. and Clark S. of Canton, O.; Solon C. of Newton Falls, O.; Mrs. Hart, of Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. GP White of Linesville, Mrs. Brooks of Kansas City, Mrs. Henry, of Battle Creek, Michigan; Mrs. Sarah Fonda, of California.

Funeral was held yesterday, Rev. OR Washburn preaching sermon; interment in Linesville cemetery. The five sons and eldest grandson, Lewis, were the bearers.
