- Her obituary was published. Per the Paul Henry Scrapbook at the Linesville Historical Society, page 29, column 3:
 "Sarah Parker Van Sicklin, whose death occurred at her home in this village, Tuesday, September 26, 1905, was born in Palmyra, NY. She spent most of her girlhood days in Kingsville, O., at which place she was married to John A. Van Sicklin in October, 1866. Five children were born to them, four of which survive her, J. Ell Van Sicklin, Misses Laura, Katherine and Sadie, all residents of our village. Mrs. Van Sicklin has been a resident of this village and Conneaut Lake for over 20 years, and during all this time has been the most popular and respected hostess of the hotels conducted by her husband, John A. Van Sicklin, who survives her. She was a most devoted and kind wife and mother, and of that beautiful, loving character which made all who knew her love and respect her. She was a true Christian and endured her long and painful illness with patience and fortitude. Our village, in her death, loses one of its noble characaters which leaves a shadow of sorrow behind. Funeral services were held at her home at 2 p.m. Thursday, September 28, 1905. Rev. WM Curry, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Lima, Ohio, delivered the funeral address with feeling and eloquence. The floral offerings were many and beautiful."
