FUNERAL SERVICES HELD WEDNESDAY FOR MRS. OCA SHATTUCK
 Mrs. Oca Shattock died Monday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H.A. McGranahan, West Erie street, where she had been living since her health began to fail. Her husband, Eugene Shattuck, preceded her in death many years ago, and she had maintained her own home since that time up till a recent date.
 Mrs. Shattuck was a member of the Universalist church and had always been very active in all the departments of that institution. During the many years that the Universalist church conducted its annual bazaars in the old opera house and Stratton's hall, she was one of the leaders.
 Earlier in her life she conducted a millinery store and had a wide acquaintance throughout the entire community, taking an active part in social and civic affairs. Her late husband was prominent, also with civic affairs and served a long term on the borough council with the man men who supervised public affair up through the years.
 Mr. and Mrs. Shattuck were well known in this community for a long period of years when he was in the meat and grocery business with Amos Line. Their wooden store building stood on the north side of the business section about where William Warner had his shoe store previous to moving a year ago. It was a land mark until removed for the new yellow brick block which stands there now.
 Mrs. SHattuck is survived by a half sister, Mrs. Miriam Curtiss of Franklin; five grandchildren, Robert, Frank, Allen, Arthur and Gene, of Youngstown, Ohio, sons of the late Frank Shattuck and Gordon Shattuck of Oregon, son of the late Clyde Shattuck; three cousins, Mrs. R.D. Rose, of Andover, Mrs. Oscar Olsen, of Ashtabula and Janie Potter, of Linesville.
 Funeral services were held from the Maryott Funeral Home, Linesville, Wednesday at 4 p.m. with interment in the Linesville cemetery.

Marriage Notes (Eugene S. Shattuck)

"Mr. and Mrs. Shattuck are prominent tradespeople of Linesville, the bride having successfully managed her millinery store since she embarked in business here a year ago. Mr. Shattuck, of the firm of Line & Shattuck, grocers and butchers, are one of the oldest, as well as successful, partnerships our town affords. The Herald joins in bestowing congratulations and best wishes."

From the Paul Henry Scrapbook at the Linesville Historical Society, page 4, column 2:
