1 Her obituary was published on Jun 14, 1898 in Linesville Borough, Crawford County, PA. From the Linesville Herald, page 5, column 2:

MRS. SARAH SHATTUCK

The funeral of Mrs. Sarah Shattuck was held this afternoon at 3 pm at Universalist Church, Rev. OR Washburn, officiating; very large concourse of people witnessed the last rites performed; interment Linesville cemetery. Her death occurred Sunday afternoon, aged 73 years. Some weeks ago she fell while working about the house and the thought is entertained that she then had a paralytic stroke, as death resulted from that disease. Her husband, Horatio Shattuck, enlisted in the three months service in the Rebellion, contracted disease, came home and died of pneumonia, in winter of 1863-64. Of three children, those living are son Fred, who is now in the Alaska gold fields, and daughter, Mrs. Ida Stratton. Aunt Sarah, as she was known to friends as well as relatives, will be greatly missed by all her acquaintances. Her sunshine disposition and helping hand will be known no more among us, but her memory always remain.
